

Peer comparisons are useful in establishing how well the University of Alaska, its main administrative units (MAUs), and associated campuses compare on given measures to institutions of like size, mission, and organization. Peer comparisons

$w^2 - (w^2 - ($